

Business in Europe

Sonia El Kahal

*Principal Lecturer
Sheffield Hallam University*

The McGraw-Hill Companies

London • New York • St Louis • San Francisco • Auckland • Bogota • Caracas
Lisbon • Madrid • Mexico • Milan • Montreal • New Delhi • Panama • Paris
San Juan • Sao Paulo • Singapore • Sydney • Tokyo • Toronto

CONTENTS

Preface	xv
Acknowledgements	xix
PART ONE: BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT OF THE NEW EUROPE	1
1. Integration theories and the movement towards a Single Market in Europe	3
Learning objectives	3
The foundations of European integration	3
Theory as a guide for legitimation	4
Theory as a guide for action •	4
Theory as an analytical framework for organizing facts	4
Integration theories	4
The Federalist theory	5
The Functionalist theory	5
The Pluralist theory	5
The Neo-functionalist approach	6
The Marxist theory	6
The creation of the European Community	6
Economic and political motives	6
" The Treaty of Rome	8
The call for closer European integration in the 1980s and 1990s	10
Review questions	11
Exercise 1.1: The enlargement of the EU: problems and future prospects	12
Sources	12
Further reading	13
2. The creation of a Single Market in Europe	14
Learning objectives	14
Background to the dynamics behind the creation of a Single Market in Europe	14
Europe without frontiers: the philosophy	15
The Single Market Objective	15
The Single Market programme	16
Free movement of goods	16
Free movement of people	18
Free movement of services and capital	19
Assessment of the 1992 programme	20
Anticipated business advantages and disadvantages of the single European
Market for firms	22
Review questions	23
Exercise 2.1: The creation of the Single European Market and its implications
for business	23
Further reading	24

3. From economic union to political union: The Treaty on European Union	25
Learning objectives	25
The main features of the Maastricht Treaty	25
Aims and objectives of the Maastricht Treaty	26
First pillar: internal common policies and economic and monetary union	27
'ECU' or 'Euro'	32
Benefits and costs of the European single currency (Euro)	33
Second pillar: common foreign and security policy	36
Third pillar: justice and home affairs	37
Social policy	38
Subsidiarity	38
Review questions	39
Exercise 3.1: Maastricht Treaty: advantages and problems of implementation	39
Sources	39
Further reading	40
 4. Community institutions and the decision-making process	 41
Learning objectives	41
The European Union decision-making process	42
The Commission	42
The Council of Ministers	44
The European Parliament	44
The Committee of the Regions	46
The Economic and Social Committee	48
The European Court of Justice	49
Influencing the decision-making process in the European Union	49
Influencing the Community decision-making process: The US experience	51
Influencing the Community decision-making process: The Japanese experience	52
Review questions	53
Exercise 4.1: EU legislation and European business	54
Sources	54
Further reading	54
 5. European Community Policies	 55
Learning objectives	55
EC Competition law	56
Article 85 (1)	56
Exemptions from Article 85	57
Article 86	58
EC Merger Control Regulation	58
From the Community Charter of Fundamental Rights for Workers, to the Agreement on Social Policy in the European Union	60
The Community Charter of Fundamental Social Rights for the Workers also known as the Social Charter	60
Problems and barriers of implementation	62
Evaluation of the Social Policy Programme: what has been achieved so far?	63

Review questions	65
Exercise 5.1: Comparative study of the EU Social Policy and the social policies implemented in the UK, USA and Japan	66
Sources	66
Further reading	66

APPENDIX: Country profiles of the 15 members of the European Union 67

PART TWO: BUSINESS OPERATIONS IN THE NEW EUROPE 91

6. Competitive strategies for Europe	93
Learning objectives	93
The nature and function of business strategy	93
Firms' strategic reaction to the creation of a Single European Market	95
Customer-based strategies	96
Case study 6.1: Localization strategy in the car industry	96
Case study 6.2: Nescafe: global strategy	98
Corporate-based strategies	99
Case study 6.3: Restructuring Pilkington	100
Competitor-based strategies	102
Case study 6.4: Quality at Rover	102
Case study 6.5: SEAT strategy for penetrating the European market	103
Review questions	105
Exercise 6.1: Competing in the Single Market	105
Sources	105
Further reading	106
7. Strategic planning for the Single European Market	107
Learning objectives	107
Formulating a strategic plan for the Single European Market	107
Stage 1: Defining corporate mission/corporate objectives	107
Stage 2: Evaluation of current position	107
Stage 3: European environmental analysis	109
Case study 7.1: Implementing a 1992 audit at NCR	110
Stage 4: Internal corporate analysis	111
Stage 5: Formulating strategies	113
Case study 7.2: Argos' flanking strategy	115
Case study 7.3: A paperless trading relying on peopleless administration: The case of Bruno Passot	116
Stage 6: Methods of entry	117
Review questions	123
Case study 7.4: The EU pharmaceutical industry	123
Exercise 7.1: Questions for discussion	126
Exercise 7.2: Taking your business into Europe	126
Exercise 7.3: Designing and implementing a single European strategic plan	127
Sources	127
Further reading	128

8. Marketing in the new European environment	129
Learning objectives	129
Marketing principles and practice	129
Marketing principles in the mid-1990s	130
Pan-European marketing strategy versus globalization	131
Case study 8.1: McDonald's marketing mix across Europe	131
Euroclusters	132
Distinctive social groups	132
Declining household size	133
Globalization of markets	133
European marketing strategic mix	134
Product policy in Europe	134
Pricing for European markets	134
Case study 8.2: The impact of pricing on Euro-consumers: The case of Benetton	135
Promotion and distribution policies in Europe	136
Case study 8.3: European-wide advertising and sales promotion: The case of GB-INNO-BM	136
Case study 8.4: Problems faced when conveying a message in European languages	138
Marketing plan for the Single European Market	138
Stage 1: Country profile	138
Stage 2: Company profile	140
Stage 3: EC and national legislation audit	140
Stage 4: Product profile	140
Stage 5: Implementation	142
Review questions	142
Exercise 8.1: Designing a marketing strategy for Europe	143
Sources	143
Further reading	143
 9. Managing in the European Union	 145
Learning objectives	145
Approaches to European management	145
First approach>definition and description of European management	145
Second approach: comparative description of national styles	147
Third approach: the socio-economic argument	148
Effective management in the Single European Market	148
Case study 9.1: Who is the Euro-executive?	149
Framework for analysing cultural differences	151
Language	151
Education	152
Attitudes and moral values	153
Religion	153
Common European business etiquette	158
Review questions	159
Exercise 9.1: Cross-Cultural Sensitivity: Managing cultural diversity in the EU	159
Sources	159
Further reading	160

PART THREE: CONTEMPORARY TRENDS AND ISSUES IN EUROPEAN BUSINESS	161
10. The globalization of competition in Europe	163
Learning objectives	163
Theoretical approaches to the 'globalization' of business	163
Causes of globalization	166
The USA and Japan's relations with the European Union	167
The USA and the European Union	167
Japan and the European Union	169
Implications of the globalization of markets for European business	170
Lessons European firms should learn from the Japanese success in Europe	171
Review questions	175
Exercise 10.1: Globalization and business in Europe	175
Sources	175
Further reading	176
11. Managing strategic alliances in Europe	177
Learning objectives	177
The rise and growth of strategic alliances	177
Characteristics of strategic alliances	178
Case study 11.1: Airbus industrie	179
Management of European strategic alliances	180
Case study 11.2: Strategic alliances in the car industry in Europe	181
Establishing successful strategic alliances	183
Model for planning successful strategic alliances for Europe	184
Partner selection	184
Stage 1: External and internal analysis	184
Stage 2: Decision making	184
Stage 3: Strategic choice	184
Stage 4: Forms of agreement	185
Stage 5: Expected outcome	185
Stage 6: Partner selection	185
Stage 7: Alliance management	185
Obstacles to successful strategic alliances in Europe	185
Case study 11.3: Competing through strategic alliances in Europe: The cereal market	186
Review questions	187
Exercise 11.1: Strategic alliances in Europe	187
Further reading	187
12. The greening of European business	188
Learning objectives	189
The need for environmental management in Europe	189
The European Union and the environment	191
EU environmental Legislation policy	191
EU environmental policy	193
EU environmental action programmes	193
Environmental provision under Article 130r	195

Implementing the EU environmental policy	196
Environmental strategies for managing the environment in the Single European Market	197
Environmental review and environmental audit	197
Environmental impact assessment or life-cycle assessment	199
Total quality environmental management (TQEM)	200
Eco-auditing/eco-labelling	202
Barriers to environmental management	202
Implementing company environmental policies	203
Case study 12.1: The Green Book at The Body Shop	203
Case study 12.2: BT environmental management policy	204
Review questions	207
Exercise 12.1: The 'green' firm	207
Further reading	208
13. The east European business environment	209
Learning objectives	209
Business opportunities in central and eastern Europe	209
Problems and difficulties of doing business in central and eastern Europe	211
The social costs of transition	211
Risk	211
Operational environment and lack of managerial and business skills	212
The information gap	212
Case study 13.1: Demoskop	213
Lack of raw materials and well-established infrastructure	213
Cultural differences	214
Different work and business ethics	215
Business strategies for doing business in central and eastern Europe	215
The movement towards a free market economy	216
Prospects for the eastern enlargement	222
Phare programme	224
Case study 13.2: Phare and Philips	225
TACIS programme	226
Essential tips on business etiquette in central and eastern Europe	226
Review questions	226
Exercise 13.1: Western support programmes towards central and eastern Europe	227
Sources	227
Further reading	227
14. Women in the European labour market Suzanne Tieze	229
Learning objectives	229
Women in the EU labour force	229
The supply of female labour	230
Occupational segregation	231
Part-time work, temporary employment, homeworking	232
Education	233
Motherhood and economic activity	233
Social protection	233

Case study 14.1: The glass-ceiling breakers	234
Case study 14.2: Opportunity 2000	235
Case study 14.3: The Danish context: in-company training for adult women	235
Women in the labour market of east and central Europe	237
Before the watershed	237
The dual role	238
Case study 14.4: New federal states (former GDR) of Germany	239
Occupational segregation and pay	239
The position of women in the labour force since 1989	239
Business reaction to women's employment in Europe	241
Review questions	242
Exercise 14.1: The position of women in the European workforce	243
Sources	243
Further reading	244
Bibliography	245
Index	255