

Business Travel and Tourism

John Swarbrooke and Susan Horner

BUTTERWORTH
HEINEMANN

OXFORD AUCKLAND BOSTON JOHANNESBURG MELBOURNE NEW DELHI

Contents

List of exhibits	vii
List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xvii
Part One The Context	1
1 Introduction	3
2 The historical development of business travel and tourism	13
3 The demand side of business travel and tourism	22
4 The supply side of business travel and tourism	36
5 The role of destinations in business travel and tourism	58
6 The macro-environment of business travel and tourism	67
7 The impacts of business travel and tourism	75
Part Two The Development and Management of Business Travel and Tourism	89
8 The physical infrastructure of business travel and tourism	91
9 The human resource infrastructure of business travel and tourism	103
10 Marketing the business travel and tourism product	123
Part Three The Practice	159
11 The organization of business tourism events	161
12 Examples of good practice	201
13 Major interactive exercises	209
Part Four The Future	221
14 Twelve key challenges in the management of business travel and tourism	223
Part Five Case Studies	235
15 Page and Moy Marketing	239
16 The role of trade fairs in meetings and incentive travel marketing	246
17 Hilton - services for the business traveller	249
18 Historic Conference Centres of Europe	256
19 Business services and loyalty programmes offered by major hotel groups	260
20 The business class products of airlines	269
21 Frequent-flyer programmes - Lufthansa and Air France	273
22 Airports and business travellers - Singapore Changi airport	276

Contents

23 The British Universities Accommodation Consortium	278
24 Disneyland® Paris Business Solutions	287
25 LEGOLAND® Windsor (UK)	294
26 Amsterdam RAI International Exhibition and Congress Centre	303
27 Business tourism in Hong Kong - City of Life	312
28 Switzerland Convention and Incentive Bureau (SCIB)	321
29 Iceland	332
30 The marketing of Portugal as a business tourism destination	335
 Part Six Glossary of Terms	 339
 Select bibliography	 345
 Index	 349