

jack

H
THE T

J EL

with JOHN A.BYRNE

WARNER BUSINESS BOOKS »

Published by Warner Books

An AOL Time Warner Company

AUTHOR'S NOTE	ix
PROLOGUE	xi

SECTION I

EARLY YEARS

1	Building Self-Confidence	3
2	Getting Out of the Pile	21
3	Blowing the Roof Off	27
4	Flying Below the Radar	37
5	Getting Closer to the Big Leagues	49
6	Swimming in a Bigger Pond	63

SECTION II

BUILDING A PHILOSOPHY

7	Dealing with Reality and "Superficial Congeniality"	91
8	The Vision Thing	105
9	The Neutron Years	121
10	- The RCA Deal	139
11	The People Factory	155
12	Remaking Crotonville to Remake GE	169

13	Boundaryless: Taking Ideas to the Bottom Line	185
14	Deep Dives	205

SECTION III

UPS AND DOWNS

15	Too Full of Myself	217
16	GE Capital: The Growth Engine	231
17	Mixing NBC with Light Bulbs	251
18	When to Fight, When to Fold	275

I'

SECTION IV

GAME CHANGERS

19	Globalization	301
20	Growing Services	317
21	Six Sigma and Beyond	325
22	E-Business	341

SECTION V

LOOKING BACK, LOOKING FORWARD

23	"Go Home, Mr. Welch"	355
1A	What This CEO Thing Is All About	377
25	A Short Reflection on Golf	401
26	"New Guy"	407
EPILOGUE		431
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS		439
APPENDIXES		447
INDEX		465