

AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Volume One

THIRD EDITION

- By

LAURENCE H. TRIBE

Ralph S. Tyler, Jr. Professor of Constitutional Law,
Harvard University

New York, New York
FOUNDATION PRESS
2000

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION, VOLUME ONE	iii
PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION.	xi
PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION	xv
THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	xliii
TABLE OF CASES	lix
Chapter 1. Approaches to Constitutional Analysis	1
Chapter 2. Model I—The Model of Separated and Divided Powers	118
Chapter 3. Federal Judicial Power	207
Chapter 4. Federal Executive Power	630
Chapter 5. Federal Legislative Power: Congressional Authority and the Implications of State Sovereignty	789
Chapter 6. Union-Preserving Aspects of Federalism: Limits on State and Local (and Occasionally Federal) Power	1021
Chapter 7. Models Beyond the Separation and Division of Powers: The Civil War as a Watershed in the Direct Federal Protec- tion of Individual Rights	1293
Chapter 8. Model II—The Model of Implied Limits on Govern- ment: The Rise and Fall of Contractual Freedom and of Substantive Due Process in the "Natural Law" Style	1332
Appendix—The Justices of the Supreme Court	1383
TABLE OF AUTHORITIES	1385
INDEX	1419

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION, VOLUME ONE —	iii
PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION	xi
PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION	xv
THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	xliii
TABLE OF CASES —	lix

CHAPTER 1. APPROACHES TO CONSTITUTIONAL ANALYSIS

Sec.

1-1.	Overview: The Changing Unchanging Subject	1
1-2.	Seven Models of Constitutional Law	4
1-3.	The Basic Pattern: Model I and the Roots of Models III and IV	6
1-4.	The Civil War's Impact: The Rise of Model II	10
1-5.	The Depression: Collapse of Model II	13
1-6.	The Post-Depression Models: III Through VII	14
1-7.	The Tension Between Containing Government and Harnessing Its Capacities	16
1-8.	The Functions of a Constitution: Constraining Today's Majority	18
1-9.	The Worry About Judicial Legitimacy: Guarding the Guardians	24
1-10.	Putting Questions of Judicial Legitimacy in Context	28
1-11.	Expounding the Constitution: The Modes of Construction	30
1-12.	Expounding the Constitution: The Importance of Text	32
1-13.	"Reading" Across Words: Interpreting Constitutional Structure	40
1-14.	Illuminating Text and Structure With History: Original Meaning and Beyond	47
1-15.	Construing the Constitution in Accord With the Nation's Values: The Place of Normative and Pragmatic Argument in Constitutional Interpretation	70
1-16.	Construing the Constitution in Accord With Judicial Precedent: Judicial Re-examination versus Stare Decisis , the Rule of Law, and Legal Doctrine as a Reliable Source of Stability and Order	78
1-17.	When Constitutional Worlds Collide: Can the Constitution Arbitrate Among Competing Modes of Interpretation From a Point External to the Interpretive Process?	85
1-18.	The Boundary Between Interpretation and Amendment	89
1-19.	What Are the Requirements of Article V?	94

Sec.		Page
1-20.	Is Compliance With Article V Necessary?: Can the Constitution Be Amended in Other Ways?_____	106
1-21.	Is Compliance With Article V Sufficient?: Can an Amendment Be Unconstitutional?_____	110

CHAPTER 2. MODEL I—THE MODEL OF SEPARATED AND DIVIDED POWERS

2-1.	Constitutional Law's Interplay of Structure and Substance and the Distinctive Character of Model I_____	118
2-2.	The Persistence of Model I: Independence and Interdependence_____	121
2-3.	Overview of Separation of Powers and Division of Powers Principles_____	124
2-4.	The Intersections of Vertical (Federalism) and Horizontal (Separation of Powers) Principles for Dividing Governmental Power_____	132
2-5.	Separating Powers—or Mingling Them?_____	136
2-6.	The Legislative Veto: A Case Study in the Separation of Powers_____	141
2-7.	A Further Case Study in Cross-Branch Relations: Impeachment for High Crimes and Misdemeanors_____	152
2-8.	Model I and the Supposed "Sounds" of Congressional Silence_____	202
2-9.	Model I and the Dangers of "Seeing" Structural Features on a Blank Constitutional Canvas_____	205
2-10.	Plan of the Model I Chapters_____	206

CHAPTER 3. FEDERAL JUDICIAL POWER

3-1.	Structuring the Inquiry into Federal Judicial Power_____	207
3-2.	Overview— Marbury v. Madison : Judicial Review as Axiom_____	207
3-3.	Judicial Review and Debate Over the Normative Breadth, Retroactive Reach, and Stare Decisis Effect of a Judgment of Unconstitutionality: "Saying What The Law Is"_____	213
3-4.	Judicial Review and the Problem of "Other Minds": The Legitimacy of Differing Interpretations of the Constitution_____	254
3-5.	Judicial Review in an Institutional Setting: The Paradox of Congressional Control of Federal Court Jurisdiction_____	267
3-6.	The Countermajoritarian Difficulty Reexamined_____	302
3-7.	Overview—Limits on the Exercise of Federal Judicial Power: The Requirement of a "Case" or "Controversy" as Defined by the Doctrines of Justiciability_____	311
3-8.	Nonconstitutional Aspects of Justiciability Doctrine_____	324
3-9.	The Ban on Advisory Opinions and the Problems of Declaratory and Partially Circumventable Judgments_____	328
3-10.	Ripeness_____	334
3-11.	Mootness_____	344

Sec.		Page
3-12.	Collusive Suits, Consent Decrees, and Imperfectly Enforceable Judgments.....	361
3-13.	The Political Question Doctrine.....	365
3-14.	Standing: A Summary.....	385
3-15.	"Injury in Fact" as the Constitutional Core of the Standing Requirement: Congress' Power to Confer Standing.....	392
3-16.	Injury in Fact: Defining Judicially Cognizable Harms.....	400
3-17.	Injury in Fact: Citizen and Taxpayer Standing, and the Policy Against Assertion of "Generalized Grievances".....	415
3-18.	Causation and Redressability: Tracing the Link Between the Litigant and the Litigation.....	424
3-19.	The Policy Against Third-Party Standing and the Related Zone-of-Interests Test Favoring a Nexus Between the Party Seeking Standing and the Right Asserted.....	434
3-20.	Standing of Organizations, States, and Legislators: The Question of Representational Capacity.....	450
3-21.	Triangulating Standing: A Schematic Summary.....	463
3-22.	Overview: Constitutional Limits on Federal Judicial Power to Review or Control State Action.....	464
3-23.	Limits on the Power of Federal Courts to Make Common Law.....	466
3-24.	The Policy Against Federal Court Review of State Court Decisions Resting on "Adequate and Independent State Grounds".....	501
3-25.	Limits on the Power of Federal Courts to Entertain Suits Against States—and of Congress to Compel States to Submit to Suit: The Eleventh Amendment and Its Supposed Exemplification of Sovereign Immunity--.....	519
3-26.	Removing the Eleventh Amendment Shield: The Conundrum of Constructive Waiver, and an Alternative Theory of Eleventh Amendment Abrogation.....	536
3-27.	The Limits of the Eleventh Amendment: The Significance of Ex parte Young	555
3-28.	Judicial Federalism: The Twin Policies of Preserving the Integrity of State Law and Respecting the Institutional Autonomy of State Judicial Systems.....	567
3-29.	Preserving the Integrity of State Law: Exhaustion of State Administrative Remedies, Pullman Abstention, and Burford Abstention.....	573
3-30.	Preserving State Institutional Autonomy: The Younger and Rooker-Feldman Doctrines.....	584
3-31.	Limits on the Remedial Powers of Federal Courts.....	599
3-32.	The Seventh Amendment Right to Trial by Jury as a Limit on Federal Judicial Power.....	616

CHAPTER 4. FEDERAL EXECUTIVE POWER

4-1.	The Puzzle of the Presidency: Its Uneasy Truce with Constitutionalism.....	630
------	--	-----

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.	Page
4-2. The Constitutional and Extra-Constitutional Character of Presidential Power: An Overview of its Interactions With Legislative Authority.....	633
4-3. The Limits of Executive Authority in Foreign Affairs: The "Domestication" of International Policy.....	637
4-4. Treaties and Executive Agreements.....	643
4-5. The Impact of Federal Foreign Affairs Supremacy on State Action.....	656
4-6. The President as Commander in Chief: Constitutional Control of the "Dogs of War".....	657
4-7. The "Silent" Limits of Inherent Executive Authority.....	670
4-8. The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Appointment and the Paradoxical Quest of Some Appointed Officers for the Mantle of "Inferiority".....	677
4-9. The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Removal and Control.....	703
4-10. The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Prosecution and Pardon.....	717
4-11. The President as Chief Executive: Power to Interpret the Law.....	722
4-12. The President as Chief Executive: The Power to Spend or Not to Spend.....	730
4-13. Further Study in Negation: Analyzing, "Pocket"-ing, and "Item"-izing the Presidential Veto —.....	736
4-14. The "Privileges and Immunities" of Presidential Leadership: Limiting Criminal and Civil Liability.....	753
4-15. The "Privileges and Immunities" of Presidential Leadership: Secrets of State, Executive Privilege, and Communications With Government Counsel.....	769
4-16. Remedies for Presidential Abuse of Executive Privilege: The Power of Congress to Say No—or to Impeach and Convict	783

CHAPTER 5. FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE POWER: CONGRESSIONAL AUTHORITY AND THE IMPLICATIONS OF STATE SOVEREIGNTY

5-1. The Scope and Limits of Congressional Power	789
5-2. The Doctrine of Enumerated Powers.....	795
5-3. The Doctrine of Implied Powers: All Laws Which Shall Be "Necessary and Proper".....	798
5-4. The Power to Regulate Interstate Commerce: The "Substantial Effect" and "Cumulative Effect" Principles.....	807
5-5. Powers Left Untouched: The Regulation of "Channels" and "Instrumentalities" of Interstate Commerce; of Persons and Objects Participating "in" Interstate Commerce; and of Activities Jurisdictionally "Connected" to Interstate Commerce.....	825
5-6. The Spending Power.....	833

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
5-7.	The Taxing Power.....	841
5-8.	The Bankruptcy and Property Powers.....	846
5-9.	Non-Constitutional Constraints on Congress' Exercise of its Article I Powers: Political Realities and Interpretive Formalities.....	850
5-10.	State Sovereignty and the Jurisprudence of Rights: Using Individual Rights to Define State Roles.....	858
5-11.	The Unsteady Path of the Tenth Amendment as a Limit on Congress' Article I Powers.....	860
5-12.	The Confused Basis of State Sovereignty.....	903
5-13.	State Sovereignty and Structural Limits.....	912
5-14.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Civil War Amendments: Overview.....	920
5-15.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Thirteenth Amendment.....	924
5-16.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.....	930
5-17.	Congressional Power and the "State Action" Limit on Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendment Guarantees.....	961
5-18.	Congressional Powers in Foreign Affairs: War, Immigration, and Citizenship.....	964
5-19.	Congressional Action and the Separation of Powers: The Problem of Delegation.....	977
5-20.	Congressional Action and the Separation of Powers: The Arrest Clause and The Speech or Debate Clause.....	1011

CHAPTER 6. UNION-PRESERVING ASPECTS OF FEDERALISM: LIMITS ON STATE AND LOCAL (AND OCCASIONALLY FEDERAL) POWER

6-1.	Authorization, Prohibition, and Negative Implication: The Puzzle of State Action Unconstitutional Until Congressionally Authorized.....	1021
6-2.	The Theoretical Underpinnings of the Dormant Commerce Clause: Fundamental Considerations, Historical Origins, and Contemporary Conflicts.....	1029
6-3.	Early Interpretations of the Commerce Clause.....	1043
6-4.	The Cooley Doctrine: Bridge to the Modern Cases.....	1046
6-5.	Judicial Review of State Regulation of Interstate Commerce: Contemporary Doctrine and the Theme of Political Representation.....	1049
6-6.	A Doctrinal Overview: The Importance of Avoiding Discrimination and Protectionism, and the Problematic Character of Commerce Clause "Balancing".....	1059
6-7.	Restrictions on Access to Local Transportation Facilities by Out-of-State Users.....	1068

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
6-8.	Illustrating the Importance of Avoiding Extraterritoriality: Protection of Local Interests Through Pricing Restrictions on Items in Interstate Commerce.....	1074
6-9.	Restraints on the Movement of Interstate Commerce.....	1080
6-10.	State "Ownership" of Natural Resources.....	1085
6-11.	State Participation in the Market.....	1088
6-12.	State Regulations Which Discourage Multi-State Business Structures and Operations	1095
6-13.	A Doctrinal Underview: Legitimate vs. Illegitimate Local Interests—and Less Restrictive (or Less Discriminatory) Alternatives.....	1100
6-14.	The Case for Doctrinal Disarray: State Treatment of Out-of-State Corporations.....	1102
6-15.	State Taxation of Interstate Commerce: Structuring the Constitutional Analysis.....	1105
6-16.	The Requirement that Taxes, Like Regulations, Be Nondiscriminatory.....	1107
6-17.	No Taxation Without Representation: The Fair Apportionment and Substantial Nexus Requirements.....	1113
6-18.	Fair Relation of Taxes to the State's Services.....	1125
6-19.	Applying the "Fair Relation" Principle: Compensatory Taxes.....	1127
6-20.	The "Fair Relation" Principle Further Applied: Internal and External Consistency in Apportionment as a Bulwark Against Multiple Taxation.....	1132
6-21.	How the Localization Strategy for Achieving Internal and External Consistency Clashes With the Market Participant Doctrine: The Example of User Fees	1141
6-22.	An Underview: How the "New Realism" is Tempered by Formalism and Compromised by Solicitude for State Revenue Needs	1145
6-23.	A Look Back at the Boundaries of the Dormant Commerce Clause: When Is the Doctrine Inapplicable?.....	1148
6-24.	State Regulation of Foreign Commerce.....	1150
6-25.	State Taxation of Foreign Commerce.....	1154
6-26.	Tax Immunity Under the Import-Export Clause.....	1159
6-27.	The Effect of the Twenty-first Amendment on the Operation of the Commerce Clause.....	1167
6-28.	The Effect of Federal Legislation on State Action: Preemption.....	1172
6-29.	Actual Conflict Between Federal and State Law.....	1179
6-30.	State Law that "Supplements" Federal Legislation.....	1195
6-31.	Federal Occupation of the Field.....	1204
6-32.	The Effect on Preemption of Federal Agencies or Licensing	1212
6-33.	The Special Role of Federal Preemption and Supremacy in Direct Intergovernmental Confrontation: Immunizing the Government and its Instrumentalities	1220

Sec.		Page
6-34.	The Scope of Federal Immunity: Formalism, Realism, Discrimination, and the Role of Congress-----	1225
6-35.	Congressional Authorization and Ratification: Interstate Commerce and Compacts, State Taxation or Control of Federal Instrumentalities and Offices, and the Unifying Role of Full Faith and Credit and of Federal Definitions of Citizenship-----	1237
6-36.	The Privileges and Immunities of State Citizenship: The Classic Doctrine and the Nature of the Union-----	1250
6-37.	Privileges and Immunities of State Citizenship: The Modern Interpretation and Broader Notions of Equal Status	1255
6-38.	The Obligation To Remedy Violations of the Constitution and Federal Laws-----	1271
6-39.	Constitutional Limits on The Long Arm of State Judicial Power.--	1280

CHAPTER 7. MODELS BEYOND THE SEPARATION AND DIVISION OF POWERS: THE CIVIL WAR AS A WATER-SHED IN THE DIRECT FEDERAL PROTECTION OF INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

7-1.	The Limited Nature of Direct Federal Protection in the Pre-Civil War Era-----	1293
7-2.	Fourteenth Amendment Privileges or Immunities: Historical Background and Early Interpretation-----	1297
7-3.	Justice Miller and the Slaughter-House Cases ~-----	1303
7-4.	The Inversion of the Slaughter-House Logic: Glimpse at a Boomerang-----	1311
7-5.	Incentives for Bringing the Privileges or Immunities Clause to Life: How Its Fate Is Entwined With That of Substantive Due Process-----	1312
7-6.	Privileges or Immunities: Assessing the Obstacles to Continued Resuscitation and Restoration-----	1320

CHAPTER 8. MODEL II—THE MODEL OF IMPLIED LIMITS ON GOVERNMENT: THE RISE AND FALL OF CONTRACTUAL FREEDOM AND OF SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS IN THE "NATURAL LAW" STYLE

8-1.	The Attempt to Import Substantive Liberties into the Idea of "Due Process of Law": Evolution and Federalization of the Theory of Implied Limitations-----	1332
8-2.	The Lochner Era: Model II Triumphant-----	1343
8-3.	Model II's Scrutiny of Means-Ends Relationships-----	1346
8-4.	Model II's Scrutiny of Legislative Ends-----	1348
8-5.	The Decline of Lochner : Internal Erosion and Collapse-----	1352
8-6.	The Decline of Lochner : External Pressure and Assault-----	1357
8-7.	Judicial Abdication in Reviewing the Substance of Economic Choices After the Collapse of Lochner -----	1361

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Sec.
8-8. From Lochner's Ashes: Other Forms of Substantive Due Process and the Still-Beating Heart of Lochner Itself	1362
8-9. Structural Alternatives to Substantive Due Process.'_____	1371
8-10. Dangers of Judicial Usurpation by Courts That Have Learned Lochner's Lesson: Overriding the Separation of Powers to Vindicate Dubious Views of Federalism._____	1374
Appendix—The Justices of the Supreme Court —_____	1383
TABLE OF AUTHORITIES._____	1385
INDEX._____	1419

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE TO THE THIRD EDITION, VOLUME ONE.....	hi
PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION.....	xi
PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION.....	xv
THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.....	xliii
TABLE OF CASES.....	lix

CHAPTER 1. APPROACHES TO CONSTITUTIONAL ANALYSIS

Sec.

1-1. Overview: The Changing Unchanging Subject	1
1-2. Seven Models of Constitutional Law.....	4
1-3. The Basic Pattern: Model I and the Roots of Models III and PV	6
1-4. The Civil War's Impact: The Rise of Model II.....	10
1-5. The Depression: Collapse of Model II.....	13
1-6. The Post-Depression Models: III Through VII	14
1-7. The Tension Between Containing Government and Harnessing Its Capacities.....	16
1-8. The Functions of a Constitution: Constraining Today's Majority	18
1-9. The Worry About Judicial Legitimacy: Guarding the Guardians	24
1-10. Putting Questions of Judicial Legitimacy in Context.....	28
1-11. Expounding the Constitution: The Modes of Construction	30
1-12. Expounding the Constitution: The Importance of Text.....	32
1-13. "Reading" Across Words: Interpreting Constitutional Structure	40
1-14. Illuminating Text and Structure With History: Original Mean- ing and Beyond	47
Original meaning as starting point.....	48
The inescapability of a moderate originalism.....	51
When new meanings should be resisted.....	52
Distinguishing original meaning from original expectation	53
Originalism and the social contract: framers or ratifiers?	56
Originalism as juxtaposition.....V.....	58
Terms of art and ordinary language.....	60
Forbidding abuses—or preserving practices?.....	62
Time's arrow: When does post-enactment history justify a "changed" reading?.....	67
1-15. Construing the Constitution in Accord With the Nation's Val- ues: The Place of Normative and Pragmatic Argument in Constitutional Interpretation.....	70
1-16. Construing the Constitution in Accord With Judicial Precedent: Judicial Re-examination versus Stare Decisis , the Rule of Law, and Legal Doctrine as a Reliable Source of Stability and Order	78
1-17. When Constitutional Worlds Collide: Can the Constitution Arbi- trate Among Competing Modes of Interpretation From a Point External to the Interpretive Process?	85

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.	Page
1-18. The Boundary Between Interpretation and Amendment	89
1-19. What Are the Requirements of Article V?—.....	94
The basic framework—.....	94
The paramount role of Congress.....	99
The problem of gradual ratification.....	100
The nonjusticiability of amendment issues.....	103
1-20. Is Compliance With Article V Necessary: Can the Constitution Be Amended in Other Ways?—.....	106
1-21. Is Compliance With Article V Sufficient: Can an Amendment Be Unconstitutional?.....	110

CHAPTER 2. MODEL I—THE MODEL OF SEPARATED AND DIVIDED POWERS

2-1. Constitutional Law's Interplay of Structure and Substance and the Distinctive Character of Model I.....	118
2-2. The Persistence of Model I: Independence and Interdependence	121
2-3. Overview of Separation of Powers and Division of Powers Principles.....	124
2-4. The Intersections of Vertical (Federalism) and Horizontal (Separation of Powers) Principles for Dividing Governmental Power.....	132
2-5. Separating Powers—or Mingling Them?.....	136
2-6. The Legislative Veto: A Case Study in the Separation of Powers.....	141
2-7. A Further Case Study in Cross-Branch Relations: Impeach- ment for High Crimes and Misdemeanors.....	152
The nature of impeachment "law".....	152
Contrasting impeachability with criminality.....	155
Which officers are subject to impeachment?.....	156
Impeachment as an exception to the ban on bills of attainder and the ban on double jeopardy.....	158
Impeachment procedure and the respective roles of the House and Senate.....	160
Comparing presidential with judicial impeachments.....	165
The definition of impeachable offenses.....	169
The impeachment of Justice Samuel Chase.....	175
The failure of the drive to impeach John Tyler.....	176
The Andrew Johnson impeachment.....	176
The Richard Nixon impeachment articles.....	179
The William Clinton impeachment.....	181
The problem of impeaching for misconduct that does not entail an abuse of power.....	190
Relating the impeachment process to the independent counsel law.....	196
Discretionary alternatives to impeachment and removal.....	196
Putting the Clinton impeachment and acquittal in perspective	200
2-8. Model I and the Supposed "Sounds" of Congressional Silence	202
2-9. Plan of the Model I Chapters.....	205

CHAPTER 3. FEDERAL JUDICIAL POWER

Sec.		Page
3-1.	Structuring the Inquiry into Federal Judicial Power.....	207
3-2.	Overview— Marbury u. Madison : Judicial Review as Axiom —	207
3-3.	Judicial Review and Debate Over the Normative Breadth, Retroactive Reach, and Stare Decisis Effect of a Judgment of Unconstitutionality: "Saying What The Law Is".....	213
	The nature of judicial review.....	213
	The effect of a judgment of unconstitutionality.....	213
	Retroactivity.....	216
	Contrasting retroactivity approaches with respect to statutes	217
	Judicial decisions.....	218
	Habeas corpus.....	227
	Differing visions of the judicial process.....	232
	Stare decisis in constitutional interpretation —.....	235
	Stare decisis in statutory interpretation.....	251
3-4.	Judicial Review and the Problem of "Other Minds": The Legitimacy of Differing Interpretations of the Constitution.	254
	Cooper v. Aaron and the Supreme Court's power to review actions of state officials.....	254
	The meaning of Cooper v. Aaron	255
	Congress' institutional competence	258
	Constitutional common law.....	259
	Judicially underenforced norms.....	260
	Whether the Court possesses a monopoly on constitutional interpretation.....	264
3-5.	Judicial Review in an Institutional Setting: The Paradox of Congressional Control of Federal Court Jurisdiction.....	267
	The constitutional and statutory framework.....	267
	Direct legislative regulation of federal court jurisdiction — ...	270
	Congressional power to regulate the process of adjudication —	280
	Indirect legislative regulation of federal court jurisdiction.....	285
	The right to judicial review of administrative decisions.....	286
	Judicial power to compel the adoption of administrative procedures.....	292
	Congress' power to assign cases to administrative agencies for resolution.....	292
	The military justice system.....	298
3-6.	The Countermajoritarian Difficulty Reexamined.....	302
	Contemporary theories of judicial review.....	304
	Critique of contemporary theories.....	307
3-7.	Overview—Limits on the Exercise of Federal Judicial Power: The Requirement of a "Case" or "Controversy" as Defined by the Doctrines of Justiciability.....	311
	The case or controversy requirement defined.....	312
	The case or controversy requirement in operation.....	314
	The judicial role in the future.....	318
	State-court decisions on questions of federal law.....	320
3-8.	Nonconstitutional Aspects of Justiciability Doctrine.....	324

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
	Declining to exercise jurisdiction.....	325
	Discretion as a fundamental principle.....	327
	Avoiding constitutional questions.....	327
3-9.	The Ban on Advisory Opinions and the Problems of Decla- ratory and Partially Circumventable Judgments.....	328
	Advisory opinions '.....	328
	Declaratory judgments.....	330
	Partially circumventable remedies.....	332
3-10.	Ripeness.....	334
	Two principal factors in the ripeness inquiry.....	334
	Fitness of the issue for judicial review.....	335
	Hardship of withholding judicial review.....	343
3-11.	Mootness —.....	344
	Mootness defined.....	344
	Prudential or required by Article III?.....	345
	Reasons that a case may'b'e moot.....	346
	Exceptions to mootness.....	347
	Mootness and class actions.....	350
	Voluntary cessation.....	353
	Collateral consequences —.....	356
	Munsingwear doctrine —.....	358
3-12.	Collusive Suits, Consent Decrees, and Imperfectly Enforceable Judgments.....	361
	"Collusive suits" defined.....	361
	Consent decree cases.....	363
	Court of claims decisions and others where compliance is de- pendent upon political action.....	364
3-13.	The Political Question Doctrine.....	365
	The political question doctrine defined.....	366
	Historical development —.....	368
	Cases since Baker v. Carr	375
	The political question doctrine recapitulated.....	385
3-14.	Standing: A Summary —.....	385
	Standing defined.....	385
	Constitutional and prudential elements of standing.....	386
	Standing and the separation of powers.....	387
	Critique of standing doctrine.....	391
3-15.	"Injury in Fact" as the Constitutional Core of the Standing Requirement: Congress' Power to Confer Standing.....	392
	History of the injury in fact requirement.....	392
	Separation-of-powers reconceptualization of injury in fact . . .	395
	Critique of Lujan	397.
3-16.	Injury in Fact: Defining Judicially Cognizable Harms.....	400
	What count as "injuries" in fact —.....	400
	Adverse judgments as a form of "injury".....	406
	Future injuries and causation.....	409
3-17.	Injury in Fact: Citizen and Taxpayer Standing, and the Policy Against Assertion of "Generalized Grievances" —.....	415

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
	Generalized grievances as a prudential bar to standing	415
	Citizen standing	415
	Taxpayer standing	421
	Critique of the Court's "generalized grievance" jurisprudence	424
3-18.	Causation and Redressability: Tracing the Link Between the Litigant and the Litigation	424
	The causation requirement defined	424
	The causation requirement in practice	426
	The causation requirement reconceptualized	428
	The relationship between "causation" and "injury"	431
	Causation in cases alleging unequal treatment	432
3-19.	The Policy Against Third-Party Standing and the Related Zone-of-Interests Test Favoring a Nexus Between the Party Seeking Standing and the Right Asserted	434
	The third-party standing rule	435
	Exceptions to the third-party standing rule	435
	The degree to which third-party standing is a reflection of substantive law	443
	Authorizations to bring suit	443
	Zone of interests standing	445
	Standing and status: a "nexus" test	448
3-20.	Standing of Organizations, States, and Legislators: The Question of Representational Capacity	450
	Associations	450
	States	452
	Legislators	456
3-21.	Triangulating Standing: A Schematic Summary	463
3-22.	Overview: Constitutional Limits on Federal Judicial Power to Review or Control State Action	464
3-23.	Limits on the Power of Federal Courts to Make Common Law	466
	Introduction to federal common law	467
	The meaning of Erie	470
	Federal common law to protect "uniquely federal interests"	472
	Federal common law and federalism	475
	Federal common law and the separation of powers	477
	Implied rights of action	478
	Rights enforceable under § 1983	481
	Implied causes of action under constitutional provisions	483
	Creation of federal common law pursuant to legislative delegations	487
	Congressional displacement of federal common law	493
	"Procedural" federal common law	494
3-24.	The Policy Against Federal Court Review of State Court Decisions Resting on "Adequate and Independent State Grounds"	501
	The/Supreme Court's power to review questions of state law	501
	The doctrine of "adequate and independent state grounds"	505
	Deciding whether a state-law ground is "adequate"	506

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.	Page
Deciding whether a state-law ground is "independent" ———	509
Federal habeas corpus review —————	512
The "pressed or passed on" rule —————	516
3-25. Limits on the Power of Federal Courts to Entertain Suits
Against States—and of Congress to Compel States to Submit to Suit: The Eleventh Amendment and Its Supposed Exemption of Sovereign Immunity —————	519
Introduction to the Eleventh Amendment . . . ———	519
History . . . —————	521
Hans v. Louisiana and the modern understanding of the Eleventh Amendment —————	523
How Eleventh Amendment doctrine diverged from Eleventh Amendment text and history early in the nineteenth century —————	529
Eleventh Amendment exceptions —————	534
3-26. Removing the Eleventh Amendment Shield: The Conundrum of Constructive Waiver, and an Alternative Theory of Eleventh Amendment Abrogation —————	536
Constructive waiver by a state's participation in a federally regulated activity or by its acceptance of conditioned federal grants . . . —————	536
Congressional abrogation of Eleventh Amendment immunity	540
A proposed reconceptualization of congressional power	547
The clear statement rule	549
Limits of congressional abrogation power —————	554
3-27. The Limits of the Eleventh Amendment: The Significance of Ex parte Young —————	555
The doctrine of Ex parte Young —————	555
The dissatisfaction with Ex parte Young —balanced by its indispensable role . . . —————	558
Pennhurst and the Eleventh Amendment's application to state-law claims in federal court —————	561
Continuing refinements to Ex parte Young	562
3-28. Judicial Federalism: The Twin Policies of Preserving the Integrity of State Law and Respecting the Institutional Autonomy of State Judicial Systems —————	567
Abstention doctrines . . . —————	568
Critics of abstention doctrines	570
3-29. Preserving the Integrity of State Law: Exhaustion of State Administrative Remedies, Pullman Abstention, and Burford Abstention	573
Exhaustion of state administrative remedies	573
Exhaustion of Indian tribal courts	576
Pullman abstention	577
Colorado River	581
Burford abstention	581
Thibodaux abstention	584

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.	Page
3-30. Preserving State Institutional Autonomy: The Younger and Rooker-Feldman Doctrines.....	584
The development of Younger abstention.....	585
Younger summarized.....	585
State administrative proceedings.....	588
Critique of the Younger doctrine.....	589
Younger -related rules.....	593
Rooker-Feldman doctrine.....	594
3-31. Limits on the Remedial Powers of Federal Courts.....	599
The right to a remedy.....	599
Modification of judicial decrees.....	605
Remedies for statutory violations.....	609
Operational challenges and the relief they necessitate.....	609
3-32. The Seventh Amendment Right to Trial by Jury as a Limit on Federal Judicial Power.....	616
Purposes and importance of the jury trial right in federal civil suits.....	616
Preservation of the basic jury trial right.....	618
The sometimes overlooked Re-examination Clause.....	623

CHAPTER 4. FEDERAL EXECUTIVE POWER

4-1. The Puzzle of the Presidency: Its Uneasy Truce with Consti- tutionalism.....	630
4-2. The Constitutional and Extra-Constitutional Character of Presidential Power: An Overview of its Interactions With Legislative Authority.....	633
4-3. The Limits of Executive Authority in Foreign Affairs: The "Domestication" of International Policy.....	637
The Constitution's distribution of foreign affairs powers.....	637
The President's constitutional responsibilities with respect to foreign affairs.....	637
Congress' assigned role in checking presidential conduct of foreign policy.....	639
4-4. Treaties and Executive Agreements.....	643
The constitutional status of treaties.....	643
Limitations on the treaty power.....	646
Executive agreements as alternatives to treaties.....	648
The Constitution's distribution of war powers.....	651
The congressional-executive agreement as a final alternative.....	652
4-5. The Impact of Federal Foreign Affairs Supremacy on State Action.....	656
4-6. The President as Commander in Chief: Constitutional Control of the "Dogs of War".....	657
The Constitution's distribution of war powers.....	657
The War Powers Resolution.....	661
The Constitution's arguable silence on war-"making".....	662
Congressional abdication as a fact of history.....	667
4-7. The "Silent" Limits of Inherent Executive Authority.....	670

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
4-8.	The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Appointment and the Paradoxical Quest of Some Appointed Officers for the Mantle of "Inferiority".....	677
	Limiting Congress' own role in making appointments—.....	677
	Distributing the power to appoint "inferior" officers: the case of the independent counsel.....	680
	Issues other than the supposedly "inferior" status of the independent counsel:.....	691
	In whom may appointment power be vested?.....	699
4-9.	The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Removal and Control.....	703
	The Myers-Humphrey's Executor Conundrum.....	703
	The Synar interpretation of Myers —.....	706
	Independent agents and agencies?:.....	710
4-10.	The President as Chief Executive: Powers of Prosecution and Pardon.....	717
4-11.	The President as Chief Executive: Power to Interpret the Law	722
4-12.	The President as Chief Executive: The Power to Spend or Not to Spend.....	730
4-13.	Further Study in Negation: Analyzing, "Pocket"-ing, and "Item"-izing the Presidential Veto.....	736
	The "pocket veto".....	737
	Delegating power to veto part of an entire bill?:.....	740
4-14.	The "Privileges and Immunities" of Presidential Leadership: Limiting Criminal and Civil Liability.....	753
	Criminal prosecution of a sitting president?	754
	Civil liability for abuses of executive power	757
	Congress' role in controlling executive liability.....	761
	Civil suits against a sitting president for non-presidential conduct? . . . •--.....	764
4-15.	The "Privileges and Immunities" of Presidential Leadership: Secrets of State, Executive Privilege, and Communications With Government Counsel.....	769
	Varieties of executive privilege.....	770
	The mediating role of the judiciary.....	771
	Compelling the President's attendance?:.....	774
	Invoking executive privilege against litigants outside the executive branch: federal criminal defendants.....	778
	Civil suits	778
	State criminal trials.....	780
	State secrets.....	780
	The related problem of a governmental attorney-client privilege.....	781
4-16.	Remedies for Presidential Abuse of Executive Privilege: The Power of Congress to Say No—or to Impeach and Convict -	783

CHAPTER FIVE. FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE POWER: CONGRESSIONAL AUTHORITY AND THE IMPLICATIONS OF STATE SOVEREIGNTY

Sec.		Page
5-1.	The Scope and Limits of Congressional Power:.....	789
	Affirmative sources of congressional power —.....	789
	The power of Congress to investigate.....	790
	Limits on congressional power:.....	794
5-2.	The Doctrine of Enumerated Powers.....	795
5-3.	The Doctrine of Implied Powers: All Laws Which Shall Be "Necessary and Proper"—.....	798
	All laws "necessary and proper".....	798
	The approach of McCulloch v. Maryland and its limits.....	799
	The relevance (and usual irrelevance) of legislative motive —	802
	McCulloch and the rational relationship standard as the mini- mum requirement for all legislation.....	805
	Linking the Necessary and Proper Clause to non-congressional power —.....	805
	Inherent legislative powers?.....	806
5-4.	The Power to Regulate Interstate Commerce: The "Substan- tial Effect" and "Cumulative Effect" Principles—.....	807
	Early interpretation of the commerce power:.....	808
	1887 to 1937: Formal classification of commercial activity. . .	808
	1937 to 1995: Broadened interpretation of the commerce power.....	811
	United States v. Lopez : Meaningful judicial review of Con- gress' exercise of the commerce power —.....	817
5-5.	Powers Left Untouched: The Regulation of "Channels" and "Instrumentalities" of Interstate Commerce; of Persons and Objects Participating "in" Interstate Commerce; and of Activities Jurisdictionally "Connected" to Interstate Com- merce:.....	825
5-6.	The Spending Power —.....	833
5-7.	The Taxing Power.....	841
5-8.	The Bankruptcy and Property Powers.....	846
5-9.	Non-Constitutional Constraints on Congress' Exercise of its Article I Powers: Political Realities and Interpretive Formal- ities.....	850
	Political restraints.....	851
	Constraints imposed by rules of statutory construction.....	853
5-10.	State Sovereignty and the Jurisprudence of Rights: Using Individual Rights to Define State Roles.....	858
5-11.	The Unsteady Path of the Tenth Amendment as a Limit on Congress' Article I Powers.....	860
	Early Tenth Amendment jurisprudence —.....	860
	Decline of ."states' rights" judicial review.....	862
	National League of Cities and its progeny: unsuccessful judicial . attempts to protect against federal regulation of the states as states:.....	863

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
	Garcia : Reliance on the "'political safeguards of federalism"-	873
	New York v. United States : Protecting against federal "com- mandeering" of state legislatures.....—	878
	Printz v. United States : Protecting against federal "comman- deering" of state executive officials.....	880
	The Second Amendment and state sovereignty.....	894
5-12.	The Confused Basis of State Sovereignty.....	903
	The Tenth Amendment.....	903
	Tacit postulates of federalism and their various, textual ex- pressions.....	906
	The Guarantee Clause.....	908
5-13.	State Sovereignty and Structural Limits.....	912
	The comparative virtue of structural protections.....	912
	The anti-discrimination rule.....—	914
	Protections against federal restructuring.....	916
	Reflections on the rebirth of federalism: policy vs. principle—	919
5-14.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Civil War Amendments: Overview.....	920
5-15.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Thirteenth Amendment-	924
5-16.	Congressional Power to Enforce the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.....	930
	Enforcing the Fifteenth Amendment.....	931
	Enforcing the Fourteenth Amendment: Katzenbach u. Morgan and the ensuing debate.....—	936
	Reconciling Morgan with Marbury	941
	City of Boerne v. Flores : Judicial review of § 5 legislation for "con- gruence and proportionality".....	947
5-17.	Congressional Power and the "State Action" Limit on Four- teenth and Fifteenth Amendment Guarantees.....	961
5-18.	Congressional Powers in Foreign Affairs: War, Immigration, and Citizenship.....	964
	Congress' war powers.....	965
	Congressional control over naturalization.....	967
5-19.	Congressional Action and the Separation of Powers: The Prob- lem of Delegation.....	977
	The nondelegation doctrine.....	977
	An important precedent defining the limits of administrative power.....—	982
	Delegations to private persons.....	991
	Chevron and the modern administrative state.....	993
	Chevron , nondelegation, and the nature of statutory construc- tion.....—	997
	Attempts to limit Chevron	1002
	Chevron and canons of statutory interpretation.....—	1007
5-20.	Congressional Action and the Separation of Powers: The Arrest Clause and The Speech or Debate Clause.....	1011
	The Arrest Clause.....	1012
	The Speech or Debate Clause.....	1013

CHAPTER SIX. UNION-PRESERVING ASPECTS OF FEDERALISM: LIMITS ON STATE AND LOCAL (AND OCCASIONALLY FEDERAL) POWER

Sec.		Page
6-1.	Authorization, Prohibition, and Negative Implication: The Puzzle of State Action Unconstitutional Until Congressionally Authorized.....	1021
6-2.	The Theoretical Underpinnings of the Dormant Commerce Clause: Fundamental Considerations, Historical Origins, and Contemporary Conflicts—.....	1029
6-3.	Early Interpretations of the Commerce Clause.....	1043
6-4.	The Cooley Doctrine: Bridge to the Modern Cases.....	1046
6-5.	Judicial Review of State Regulation of Interstate Commerce: Contemporary Doctrine and the Theme of Political Representation.....	1049
6-6.	A Doctrinal Overview: The Importance of Avoiding Discrimination and Protectionism, and the Problematic Character of Commerce Clause "Balancing".....	1059
6-7.	Restrictions on Access to Local Transportation Facilities by Out-of-State Users.....	1068
6-8.	Illustrating the Importance of Avoiding Extraterritoriality: Protection of Local Interests Through Pricing Restrictions on Items in Interstate Commerce.....	1074
6-9.	Restraints on the Movement of Interstate Commerce.....	1080
6-10.	State "Ownership" of Natural Resources.....	1085
6-11.	State Participation in the Market.....	1088
6-12.	State Regulations Which Discourage Multi-State Business Structures and Operations.....	1095
6-13.	A Doctrinal Underview: Legitimate vs. Illegitimate Local Interests—and Less Restrictive (or Less Discriminatory) Alternatives.....	1100
6-14.	The Case for Doctrinal Disarray: State Treatment of Out-of-State Corporations.....	1102
6-15.	State Taxation of Interstate Commerce: Structuring the Constitutional Analysis.....	1105
6-16.	The Requirement that Taxes, Like Regulations, Be Nondiscriminatory.....	1107
6-17.	No Taxation Without Representation: The Fair Apportionment and Substantial Nexus Requirements.....	1113
	Sales taxes and local sellers.....	1119
	Sales taxes and use taxes as applied to out-of-state sellers.....	1120
6-18.	Fair Relation of Taxes to the State's Services.....	1125
6-19.	Applying the "Fair Relation" Principle: Compensatory Taxes.....	1127
	The constitutionality of compensatory use taxes.....	1127
	Constitutional limitations on compensatory taxes generally.....	1129
6-20.	The "Fair Relation" Principle Further Applied: Internal and External Consistency in Apportionment as a Bulwark Against Multiple Taxation.....	1132
	Internal consistency.....	1133

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.	Page
External consistency.....	1136
Localizing the subject matter of a tax as a solution to the problem of multiple taxation.....	1137
6-21. How the Localization Strategy for Achieving Internal and Ex- ternal Consistency Clashes With the Market Participant Doc- trine: The Example of User Fees.....	1141
6-22. An Underview: How the "New Realism" is Tempered by Formalism and Compromised by Solicitude for State Reve- nue Needs.....	1145
6-23. A Look Back at the Boundaries of the Dormant Commerce Clause: When Is the Doctrine Inapplicable?.....	1148
6-24. State Regulation of Foreign Commerce.....	1150
6-25. State Taxation of Foreign Commerce.....	1154
6-26. Tax Immunity Under the Import-Export Clause.....	1159
6-27. The Effect of the Twenty-first Amendment on the Operation of the Commerce Clause.....	1167
6-28. The Effect of Federal Legislation on State Action: Preemption	1172
6-29. Actual Conflict Between Federal and State Law.....	1179
6-30. State Law that "Supplements" Federal Legislation ~.....	1195
6-31. Federal Occupation of the Field.....	1204
6-32. The Effect on Preemption of Federal Agencies or Licensing— Creation of a Federal Agency.....	1212
Relevance of Federal Licensing.....	1217
6-33. The Special Role of Federal Preemption and Supremacy in Direct Intergovernmental Confrontation: Immunizing the Government and its Instrumentalities.....	1220
6-34. The Scope of Federal Immunity: Formalism, Realism, Dis- crimination, and the Role of Congress.....	1225
Emergence of the "legal incidence" test.....	1225
The role of the non-discrimination requirement.....	1233
6-35. Congressional Authorization and Ratification: Interstate Commerce and Compacts, State Taxation or Control of Fed- eral Instrumentalities and Offices, and the Unifying Role of Full Faith and Credit and of Federal Definitions of Citi- zenship.....	1237
Interstate compacts.....	1238
State commerce regulation.....	1242
Taxation of federal instrumentalities.....	1245
Norms Congress may not waive or lift.....	1246
Full faith and credit, and the parameters of federal office——	1246
6-36. The Privileges and Immunities of State Citizenship: The Classic Doctrine and the Nature of the Union.....	1250
6-37. Privileges and Immunities of State Citizenship: The Modern Interpretation and Broader Notions of Equal Status.....	1255
6-38. The Obligation To Remedy Violations of the Constitution and Federal Laws.....	1271

ANALYTICAL TABLE OF CONTENTS

Sec.		Page
6-39.	Constitutional Limits on the Long Arm of State Power to Adjudicate, and to Provide the Law to be Followed in Out-of-State Fora	1280
	Personal jurisdiction	1280

CHAPTER SEVEN. MODELS BEYOND THE SEPARATION AND DIVISION OF POWERS: THE CIVIL WAR AS A WATERSHED IN THE DIRECT FEDERAL PROTECTION OF INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

7-1.	The Limited Nature of Direct Federal Protection in the Pre-Civil War Era.....	1293
7-2.	Fourteenth Amendment Privileges or Immunities: Historical Background and Early Interpretation.....	1297
7-3.	Justice Miller and the Slaughter-House Cases	1303
7-4.	The Inversion of the Slaughter-House Logic: Glimpse at a Boomerang	1311
7-5.	Incentives for Bringing the Privileges or Immunities Clause to Life: How Its Fate Is Entwined With That of Substantive Due Process.....	1312
7-6.	Privileges or Immunities: Assessing the Obstacles to Continued Resuscitation and Restoration.....	1320

CHAPTER EIGHT. MODEL II—THE MODEL OF IMPLIED LIMITS ON GOVERNMENT: THE RISE AND FALL OF CONTRACTUAL FREEDOM AND OF SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS IN THE "NATURAL LAW". STYLE

8-1.	The Attempt to Import Substantive Liberties into the Idea of "Due Process of Law": Evolution and Federalization of the Theory of Implied Limitations.....	1332
8-2.	The Lochner Era: Model II Triumphant	1343
8-3.	Model II's Scrutiny of Means-Ends Relationships.....	1346
8-4.	Model II's Scrutiny of Legislative Ends.....	1348
8-5.	The Decline of Lochner : Internal Erosion and Collapse.....	1352
8-6.	The Decline of Lochner : External Pressure and Assault.....	1357
8-7.	Judicial Abdication in Reviewing the Substance of Economic Choices After the Collapse of Lochner	1361
8-8.	From Lochner's Ashes: Other Forms of Substantive Due Process and the Still-Beating Heart of Lochner Itself.....	1362
8-9.	Structural Alternatives to Substantive Due Process.....	1371
8-10.	Dangers of Judicial Usurpation by Courts That Have Learned Lochner's Lesson: Overriding the Separation of Powers to Vindicate Dubious Views of Federalism	1374

APPENDIX—THE JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT	1383
TABLE OF AUTHORITIES.....	1385
INDEX	1419