

The Death Penalty Beyond abolition

Introduction by Roger Hood

Preface by Robert Badinter

Contents

Foreword
Walter Schwimmer	5
Preface – Moving towards universal abolition of the death penalty
Robert Badinter	7
Introduction – The importance of abolishing the death penalty
Roger Hood	13
The death penalty versus human rights
Eric Prokosch	23
Capital punishment – The families of the homicide victim and the condemned
Peter Hodgkinson	37
The role of the Council of Europe's Parliamentary Assembly
Renate Wohlwend	65
i Protocol No. 6 to the European Convention on Human Rights
Hans Christian Kriiger	87
v The case-law of the institutions of the European Convention on Human Rights
Caroline Ravaud	97
The United Nation's work in the field of the death penalty
Sir Nigel Rodley	125
Alternatives to the death penalty – The United Kingdom experience
Peter Hodgkinson	159
Abolition in France
Anne Ferrazzini and Michel Forst	191
The Russian Federation and the death penalty
Anatoly Pristavkin	199
The present situation of the death penalty in the United States
Hugo Adam Bedau	205

The death penalty in Japan Yoshihiro Yasuda	215
--	-----

Appendices

Appendix I – Protocol No. 6	233
------------------------------------	-----

Appendix n – Protocol No. 13	236
-------------------------------------	-----

Appendix IH – Table showing abolition in Council of Europe member, candidate and observer states	239
---	-----