

Business and Human Rights

DILEMMAS AND SOLUTIONS

EDITED BY RORY SULLIVAN

Contents

Acknowledgements	8
Foreword	9
Mary Robinson, Executive Director, Ethical Globalisation Initiative, USA; Former United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights
1. Introduction	13
Rory Sullivan, Insight Investment, UK
Part 1: Why are human rights a business issue?	21
2. The evolution of the business and human rights debate	22
Geoffrey Chandler, UK
3. The development of human rights responsibilities for multinational enterprises	33
Peter Muchlinski, University of Kent at Canterbury, UK
4. Human rights, trade and multinational corporations	52
David Kinley and Adam McBeth, Castan Centre for Human Rights Law, Monash University, Australia
5. Human rights and business: an ethical analysis	69
Denis G. Arnold, University of Tennessee, USA

- 6. The ability of corporations to protect human rights in developing countries 82
Frans-Paul van der Putten, Gemma Crijns and Harry Hummels,
Nyenrode University, The Netherlands
- 7. What is the attitude of investment markets to corporate performance on human rights? 92
David Coles, Just Pensions, UK
- 8. From the inside looking out: a management perspective on human rights 102
Rory Sullivan, Insight Investment, UK, and
Nina Seppala, Warwick Business School, UK

Part 2: Corporate responses 113

- 9. Corporate social responsibility failures in the oil industry 114
Charles Woolfson, Glasgow University, UK, and Matthias Beck, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK
- 10. Mining in conflict zones 125
Simon Handelsman, Global Issues Advisors, USA
- 11. Health, business and human rights: the responsibility of health professionals within the corporation 143
Norbert Goldfield, 3M Health Information Systems, USA
- 12. Privatising infrastructure development: 'development refugees' and the resettlement challenge 155
Christopher McDowell, Macquarie University, Australia

Part 3: Supply chains 169

- 13. The contribution of multinationals to the fight against HIV/AIDS . 170
Steven Lim and Michael Cameron, University of Waikato, New Zealand
- 14. Elimination of child labour: business and local communities 181
Bahar Ali Kazmi and Magnus Macfarlane, Warwick Business School, UK
- 15. SA 8000: Human rights in the workplace 197
Deborah Leipziger, Consultant, The Netherlands, and Eileen Kaufman, Social Accountability International, USA

16. Corporate responsibility and social capital: the nexus dilemma in Mexican maquiladoras	207
Luis Reygadas, Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana Iztapalapa, Mexico
Part 4: Community and government	219
17. From fuelling conflict to oiling the peace: harnessing the peace-building potential of extractive- sector companies operating in conflict zones	220
Jessica Banfield, International Alert, UK
18. Extracting conflict	232
Gary MacDonald, Monkey Forest Consulting Ltd, Canada, and Timothy McLaughlin, Independent Consultant, USA
19. Managing risk and building trust: the challenge of implementing the Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights	243
Bennett Freeman, Former Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Democracy, Human Rights and Labor, USA, and Genoveva Hernández Uriz, European University Institute, Italy
20. Taking responsibility for bribery: the multinational corporation's role in combating corruption	260
David Hess, University of Michigan Business School, USA, and Thomas Dunfee, University of Pennsylvania, USA
21. Taking the business and human rights agenda to the limit? The Body Shop and Amnesty International 'Make Your Mark' campaign	272
Heike Fabig, University of Sussex, UK, and Richard Boele, Australian Institute of Corporate Citizenship, Australia
22. Moving forwards	284
Rory Sullivan, Insight Investment, UK
Bibliography	290
List of abbreviations	00
Author biographies	00
Index	00