

The Coordination of the European Union

Exploring the Capacities of Networked Governance

Andrew Jordan and Adriaan Schout

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Tables and Boxes	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xviii

PART I: Introduction

1. Political ambitions and coordination capacities: the management of horizontal and vertical interdependence	3
2. Multilevel coordination capacities	31

PART II: THE MULTILEVEL CONTEXT

3. Environmental policy integration at European Union level: a catalogue of coordinating capacities	61
4. The coordination of European Union policy: actor perspectives	87
5. Environmental policy integration in the European Union: actor perspectives	113

PART III: MEMBER STATES

6. Germany: a reactive and passive coordinator?	145
7. The Netherlands: from event to issue coordination?	166
8. The United Kingdom: strong administrative coordination mechanisms but weak political ambitions?	187

PART IV: EUROPEAN UNION INSTITUTIONS

9. The European Commission: an organization in transition?	209
10. The European Parliament: a partially disengaged partner?	230

Contents

PART V: COMPARATIVE CONCLUSIONS

11. The coordination of the European Union: exploring the capacities of networked governance	251
---	-----

Bibliography	277
---------------------	-----

Index	301
--------------	-----