

1 238 462 43XL

External Performance in Low-Income Countries

Alessandro Prati, Luca Antonio Ricci,
Lone Christiansen, Stephen Tokarick, and Thierry Tresselt

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Preface | v |
| 1. Overview | 1 |
| 2. Literature on the Main Determinants of External Balance | 6 |
| Macroeconomic Policies, Predetermined Characteristics, and Economic Development | 6 |
| Policy Distortions and Institutions | 8 |
| Shocks | 9 |
| External Financing through Official Aid | 10 |
| 3. Empirical Analysis of the Current Account | 12 |
| Benchmark Current Account Regressions for Low-Income Countries | 12 |
| Robustness | 15 |
| Are Low-Income Countries Different? | 17 |
| 4. Empirical Analysis of the Real Exchange Rate | 19 |
| Benchmark Real Effective Exchange Rate Regressions for Low-Income Countries | 19 |
| Are Low-Income Countries Different? | 21 |
| Robustness | 22 |
| Speed of Adjustment | 23 |
| 5. Empirical Analysis of the Net Foreign Assets Position | 26 |
| Benchmark Net Foreign Asset Regressions for Low-Income Countries | 26 |
| Robustness | 28 |
| Are Low-Income Countries Different? | 28 |
| Speed of Adjustment | 28 |
| 6. Import and Export Elasticities | 29 |
| The Model | 29 |
| Calculation of Elasticities | 32 |
| 7. Trade Elasticities and the Exchange Rate | 46 |
| The General Formula for Trade Balance Elasticities | 46 |
| Special Cases | 47 |
| Appendix: The Database | 55 |
| References | 60 |