

PRIVATE EQUITY
INTERNATIONAL

THE OPERATING PARTNER IN PRIVATE EQUITY

Successful strategies for value creators

Edited by
Tony Ecock, The Carlyle Group

Contents

Figures and tables	vii	Recent trends	23
About the editor	xi	Operating team models	28
Foreword	xiii	Innovations and cross-portfolio initiatives	29
By Richard Zannino and Karl Kurz, CCMP Capital Advisors, LLC		Conclusions	30
Introduction	1	Chapter three	31
By Tony Ecock, PEOPEN		Working with deal teams
Considerations for hiring full-time operating partners	1	By Conor Boden, Advent International
Opportunity-rich environment	1	Introduction	31
Advantages of having full-time, in-house operating partners	2	The role of the operating partner	31
Key success factors	4	Key attributes for success	33
Conclusion	9	Choosing the right private equity firm	34
		Executing successfully in private equity	34
		What makes for an effective ongoing relationship?	35
		Time commitment and length of relationship	36
		Conclusion	38
Section I: Setting up the operating group		Section II: Due diligence
Chapter one	13	Chapter four	41
Operating partner team models, profiles and compensation		Business/market due diligence
By Andrew Fulton, AJF Executive Search and Miles Graham, 3i		By Jay Lucas, The Lucas Group
Introduction	13	Overview	41
Designing an operating model and the operating partner's role	13	Background	41
Typical profiles	18	Traditional elements of analysis	41
Compensation and profiles	19	The five drivers of value	43
Conclusion	21	Conclusion	46
Chapter two	23	Chapter five	47
Practices and innovations in operating partner groups		Financial due diligence
By Jason Caulfield and John Moore, Deloitte		By John Selvey and Jessica Scott, PricewaterhouseCoopers
Introduction	23	Introduction	47
		Planning and risk assessment	47
		Access to information	50
		Building blocks	52
		Conclusion	56

Chapter six	59	Before the close: sourcing and investment decision-making	100
Tax due diligence		Early execution	102
By Dawn Marie Krause and Jason Thomas, PricewaterhouseCoopers		Follow-through: shepherding the deal to exit	103
Introduction	59	Conclusion	105
Scoping to achieve maximum results	59
Interpreting a tax due diligence report	61	Chapter eleven	107
Vendor/sell-side due diligence	64	Selecting and developing portfolio company executives
Conclusion	66	By Ric Andersen, Milestone Partners and Andy Rourke, Blake Street Group
Chapter seven	67	Introduction	107
Operational due diligence		Selection in pre-deal due diligence and portfolio company executive hiring	107
By Jason Caulfield and Matt Penny, Deloitte		Running an effective executive selection process	108
Introduction	67	On-boarding and developing portfolio company executives	112
Risks and performance improvement potential	67	A final dose of 'soft'	113
Carveout issues and costs	71	Conclusion	114
Merger synergies and integration challenges	73
Conclusions	75	Chapter twelve	115
Chapter eight	77	Financial leadership and assessment
Financial due diligence, an operator's approach		By John Jureller, General Atlantic LLC
By Shahriyar Rahmati, The Gores Group		Introduction	115
Introduction	77	Assessing the CFO	115
Income statement	77	Finance organisation competency	117
Balance sheet	83	The scorecard	120
Conclusion	85	Conclusion	121
		Chapter thirteen	123
Section III: Managing the portfolio		Portfolio company management incentives
Chapter nine	89	By Marc Hodak, Hodak Value Advisors
Working with portfolio companies		The (sometimes hidden) power of incentives	123
By Scott Glickman and Sara Boyd, Graham Partners		Incentives and control	123
Introduction	89	Why equity is not enough	123
Pre-acquisition due diligence	90	Target variable compensation: the first step in incentive-plan design	124
On-boarding	91	Subjective measures for bonus distribution	126
Ownership	95	Target-setting	126
Exit	96	Plan leverage	128
Conclusion	96	Management versus board's role in establishing incentive plans	130
Chapter ten	99
Transformational ownership: moving beyond 100-day plans
By Roberto Quarta, Clayton, Dubilier & Rice
Introduction	99

Chapter fourteen	131	Chapter seventeen	165
Legal aspects in managing portfolio company senior management		Customer lifetime value: methodology and applications for operating partners
By Scott Price, Kirkland & Ellis, LLP		By Hilary Gosher and Nikitas Koutoupes, Insight Venture Partners
Introduction	131	Introduction	165
The goal of legal arrangements	131	Defining CLV and its components	165
The concept of 'fairness'	132	Implementing CLV to drive growth	167
Material provisions of legal documents	133	Using CLV post-investment	171
Severance	134	Conclusion	175
Restrictive covenants	135
Dispute-resolution provisions	136	Section V: Operations
Exiting the relationship	137	Chapter eighteen	179
Conclusion	138	Cost and cash management for private equity portfolio companies
		By Gary Matthews, Morgan Stanley Private Equity and David Hanfland, AT Kearney
Section IV: Growth		Introduction	179
Chapter fifteen	143	1. Set big goals... thoughtfully	179
Winning with customer insight		2. Think creatively	181
By Chris Hsu and Derick Prella, KKR Capstone, and Anne Beall, Beall Research and Training, Inc.		3. Focus initial efforts	182
Introduction	143	4. Don't coach from the skybox	183
Asking the right questions	143	5. Value of outside perspectives	184
Limits to the researcher's crystal ball: data interpretation and methodologies	145	6. Aligning incentives and celebrating success	185
Research project timelines	147	Conclusion	187
Understanding what tools to use	148
Focus groups	148	Chapter nineteen	189
Picking the right research partner	151	Working-capital and cash-flow management for operating partners
Conclusion	152	By Nick Alvarez, Alvarez & Marsal and David Heidecorn, Catterton Partners
		Introduction	189
Chapter sixteen	155	The stakes: management versus mismanagement	189
Improving sales force effectiveness		Assessing the working-capital and cash-flow functions	190
By Steve Larned, Welsh, Carson, Anderson & Stowe and Pete Masloski, ZS Associates		Chasing the right targets	190
Introduction	155	The need for an organisation-wide effort	191
Assessing opportunity with performance data	155	Getting it right	193
Leveraging a proprietary view of market potential	156	The borrowing base: a double-edged sword	195
Deploying and focusing resources	157	Thirteen-week treasury cash-flow forecast	195
Optimising the talent base	160	Conclusion	196
Driving focus with tools, incentives and metrics	161
Conclusion	163

Chapter twenty	199	Nature of the proposed transaction	219
Developing a private equity procurement programme		Key insurance issues	220
By Jeff Gallant, Welsh, Carson, Anderson & Stowe		Key legal issues	221
Introduction	199	Transition issues	222
1. Appoint an experienced leader	199	Role of insurance in value creation	222
2. Conduct a discovery process	200	Conclusion	228
3. Select a few trusted partners	202
4. Assess portfolio company procurement operations	202	Chapter twenty-three	229
5. Develop the procurement plan	204	Merger integration and carveouts
6. Execute and expand the programme	205	By Gary Moran and Denis Picard, Alvarez & Marsal
7. Provide ongoing governance	206	Introduction	229
Conclusion	207	Linking integration strategy to value proposition	230
		People: choose carefully and drive the desired culture	231
Chapter twenty-one	209	Organising for a successful transition	231
Portfolio purchasing of employee benefits		Communicating effectively with key stakeholders	234
By Jeff Cox and Shital Davé, Mercer Human Resource Consulting, and Jayne Binzer, Cerberus Operations and Advisory Company		Getting IT right	235
Introduction	209	Conclusion	237
Setting up a portfolio purchasing programme	209
US medical portfolio purchasing	210	Chapter twenty-four	239
Additional portfolio-programme opportunities	213	Information technology: integration and operational effectiveness
Risk management strategies	215	By James Cashin and Daniel Wheadon, RSM McGladrey, Inc.
Best practices	216	Introduction	239
Conclusion	217	Defining IT due diligence	239
		Integration planning and governance	241
Chapter twenty-two	219	Integration execution	242
Risk and insurance: due diligence and value-accretive portfolio strategies		Post-close assessment and continuous improvement	243
By Brian Casey, Aon		Conclusion	246
Introduction	219
		About PEI	248

PRIVATE EQUITY
INTERNATIONAL

THE OPERATING PARTNER IN PRIVATE EQUITY

VOLUME 2

Advanced strategies for value creators

Edited by
Tony Ecock, The Carlyle Group

Contents

Figures and tables	vii
About the editor	xi
Introduction	xiii
By Tony Ecock, The Carlyle Group
1 Operational value creation at the portfolio level	1
By Tony Ecock, The Carlyle Group
Introduction	1
Operational value creation at the portfolio level: 6 must dos for private equity firms	3
1. Start with a broad view of operational value add	3
2. Implement a systematic, repeatable process starting pre-closing	4
3. Resource the approach sufficiently for the mission	9
4. Apply the approach consistently	12
5. Continuously prioritise work with the companies	14
6. Measure the results and adapt over time	15
Conclusion: Operating value in context	16
2 Operational approaches: The limited partner perspective	17
By Jay Bartlett, Parthenon-EY
Introduction	17
LPs' level of awareness and understanding of operating resources	17
Operating models available and their prominence	18
Do LPs believe there is a superior approach to leveraging operating resources?	20
Conclusion: Key takeaways for GPs	23
3 A day in the life of an operating partner	25
By Mike Kohlsdorf, Francisco Partners
Introduction	25
The dance: A typical day	25
The ticket to the dance: Importance of User Interface (UI)	33
Conclusion: Save the last dance	34
4 Smooth operators: How Riverside built and refined its operating approach	35
By Dan Colbert, The Riverside Company (2007-2014)
Introduction	35

	The birth of the Riverside operating model	36
	The early years of Riverside Micro-Cap Fund (RMCF)	39
	Growing pains	40
	Key lessons from failed deals	41
	Finding operating partners	42
	Refining the approach	43
	Riverside University: Operations are part of Riverside's DNA	44
	Conclusion	44
5	Leveraging operational due diligence to enhance outcomes for equity and credit investors	47
	By Shahriyar Rahmati, The Gores Group
	Introduction	47
	Operating due diligence used for determining credit	47
	Transaction types: How they relate to financing scenarios	48
	A primer on LBO financing, and its reliance on borrower operations	50
	Credit agreement: Elements that an operating executive can inform and should be knowledgeable about	55
	Focusing on the concept of liquidity vs. the notion of 'cash'	55
	Operating executive's role during a default period/when the sponsor has taken ownership through debt ownership	56
	Conclusion	58
6	Driving risk mitigation in private equity portfolio companies	59
	By Scott Glickman, Dan Soroka and Sara Boyd, Graham Partners
	Introduction	59
	Business controls risk	59
	Business model risk	67
	Case study: The Atlas Group	69
	Case study: Infiltrator Systems	70
	Conclusion	71
7	Effecting and leading transformational change	73
	By Mark Gillett, Silver Lake and David Moss
	Introduction – identifying the nature of change	73
	Defining transformation	74
	The transformation process	74
	Considerations	80
	Step 1: Prepare	81
	Step 2: Frame and establish the transformation	82
	Step 3: Implement and iterate	85
	Step 4: Embed and sustain the change	88
	Step 5: Finishing the transformation	89
	Conclusion	90
	Glossary	92

8	Transformational value creation in the middle market: Picking your spots to maximise portfolio returns	93
	By Christopher Springer, Alliance Holdings Inc
	Introduction	93
	Picking your spots for transformational change	94
	The must haves	95
	The must dos	99
	Conclusion	103
9	Connecting CEO talent to value	105
	By Sandy Ogg, CEO.works
	Introduction	105
	Disconnects: Set up to fail	107
	Connect: Set up to succeed	110
	Conclusion	113
10	The drive for improved organic growth in private equity portfolio companies	115
	By Steve Lamed, Welsh, Carson, Anderson & Stowe, and James R. Corey and André Martinelli, Blue Ridge Partners
	Introduction	115
	Growth objectives by deal type	115
	Shaping the context to engage in growth	116
	Strategies for improving growth basics	123
	Prioritising and pursuing high-impact actions	127
	Creating and sustaining impact with implementation excellence:
	Critical actions for operating partners	131
	Conclusion	132
11	Managing pricing with intention: A practical guide to getting started	135
	By Stephan M. Liozu, Value Innorruption Advisors and Chatham University
	Introduction	135
	Reasons to pay attention to pricing now	136
	Ten considerations to get pricing right	137
	Five ways to get started tomorrow	144
	The secret is in the execution	146
	Conclusions	146
12	Carve-outs 2.0: Next generation carve-out management	147
	By Nick Alvarez, Markus Lahrkamp, Ajay Raina and Jeff Shaffer, Alvarez & Marsal
	Introduction	147
	Complex, yet increasingly popular	147
	The multi-phase carve-out process	149

	Phase 1: 'We like the deal, but what are we really getting into?'	149
	Phase 2: The deal is signed - start planning	152
	Phase 3: 'Now we own it: we need to execute the plan'	156
	Conclusion: 9 practical tips for success	159
13	Information technology for operating partners	161
	By Matt Sondag, Keith Campbell and Kyle Sarausky, West Monroe Partners
	Introduction	161
	IT operating partners: How to select one and how to optimise the role	161
	IT due diligence: Uncovering the good, the bad and the ugly	165
	Breaking up is hard to do: Lessons from the trenches that increase carve-out success	171
	Conclusion	178
14	Implementing key performance indicators in portfolio companies	179
	By Kristoffer Nino, Orbis Invest
	Introduction	179
	Lessons	179
	Guide to implementing KPIs	182
	Solidifying the system	193
	Conclusion	194
15	Mind your step! Avoiding the legal pitfalls of being an operating partner	195
	By Othon Prounis, Eva Carman and Amanda Raad, Ropes & Gray
	Introduction	195
	Today's enforcement climate	195
	Transparency and risk-based regulations	195
	Enforcement activities relevant to operating partners	197
	Potential liabilities beyond the regulatory context	204
	Conclusion	207
	About PEI	208